8. Property

Entry letters, entry forms, answers submitted, and declaration and release forms become the property of the Contest Organizers and will in no cases be returned to participants. Answers submitted, even those from non-winners, may be used without mention of the author's name.

9. General terms and conditions

To be declared a winner, the selected entrant must meet the following terms and conditions:

A representative of SNAC will attempt to reach the selected entrant by email or telephone no later than seven (7) working days following the draw. The person must be reached within this delay, failing which he or she will be disqualified and the prize will be awarded to the next person whose name is drawn at random. The same procedure will be followed until a winner is declared. The method of awarding the prize will be decided upon by telephone with the winners.

The winner must claim the prize in person, and must, by signing a declaration and release form (the "Release Form"), release SNAC from any and all liability for damage or loss that may occur as a result of entering the contest, the awarding of or use of the prize, the quality of the prize. The Release Form will be sent by the contest organizers by mail, fax or e-mail, and must be signed and returned within seven (7) days after receipt.

Within 10 days of receiving the Release Form, the contest organizers will inform the winner how to take possession of the prize by telephone, mail or fax.

If the selected entrant fails to comply with any of the abovementioned conditions or any other conditions herein, he/she will be disqualified and a new prize draw will be held according to these rules and regulations. The same conditions will apply, subject to any necessary modifications.

10. Substitution and number of prizes

In the event the prize cannot be awarded, SNAC reserves the right to substitute, in whole or in part, other prizes of approximately equal value.

11. Prize limit

In no case will contest organizers be obligated to award more prizes or award prizes other than as specified herein.

12. Acceptance of prize

The contest organizers and those on whose behalf this contest is being held will not be held liable for entries that are lost, are sent to the wrong address, or are late, including due to problems or any malfunction whatsoever of the contest Website, Facebook page or a participant's computer during the contest period.

17. Limitation of liability: inability to act

The contest organizers and those on whose behalf this contest is being held will not be held liable in any way whatsoever if their inability to act results from a situation or event beyond their control, or from a strike, a lock-out or any other labour conflict in the establishments of organizations or businesses whose services are used to hold the contest.

18. Authorization

Winners authorize the contest organizers to use their name, place of residence, photograph, likeness, voice, description of their prize and any statement regarding the contest for advertising or promotional purposes, without any form of compensation or additional payment.

19. Modification of the contest

The contest organizers reserve the right, at their sole discretion, to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend this contest, in whole or in part, should an event or any human intervention occur that could alter or affect the management, security, impartiality or operation of the contest as provided for herein, subject to the approval of the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux du Québec, if required.

20. End of contest entry

The contest organizers reserve the right to terminate this contest should circumstances beyond their control prevent it from continuing. In such an event, they may not in any way be held responsible.

21. Communication with participants

No communication or correspondence will be exchanged with participants in relation to this contest other than in accordance with these contest rules and regulations or at the initiative of contest organizers.

22. Decisions of contest organizers

Any decisions by the contest organizers or their representatives regarding this contest are final and binding, subject to any decision by the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux du Québec with respect to any matter under its jurisdiction.

23. Dispute

Disputes about the organization or conduct of a promotional contest may be submitted to the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux for a ruling. Disputes regarding the awarding of a prize may be submitted to the Régie only for the purposes of helping the parties reach a settlement.

24. Divisibility of paragraphs

If any section of these rules is declared or deemed illegal, unenforceable, or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, that section will be considered invalid, but all other sections that are unaffected will be enforced to the extent permitted by law.

25. Rules and regulations

These rules and regulations are available in French and English in the “Contest” section of the page <http://www.snac.ca/concours/>.

25.1 In the event of a discrepancy between the French and English versions of the rules and regulations, the French version shall prevail.
